

A2A Training

Aspiration to Achievement

Frequently asked questions about our training courses

How long does it take to complete?	That's up to you. We work at your pace. You can complete in as little as a few weeks or take up to a maximum of 12 months.
How much are the courses?	Have a look on the website there's an up-to-date fees list on there Assessing & IQA Courses A2A Training
What if I don't like writing essays?	It's up to you how you want to work, you don't need to write essays, there are other options such as professional discussion, Q&A sessions, workbooks, or short answers.
What if I don't have learners to assess, IQA or EPA for the practical?	We can often help with this. Email us to let us know and we can support you to work with learners, let us know before you register for the course.
How do you decide who would be the most suitable assessor for me?	We look at logistics and what course you are on. Our assessors all qualified, experienced, and friendly.
Can I pay in instalments?	Yes, this can be agreed in advance, let us know this is an option you are interested in.
What are your success rates?	So far 100% for all learners who have reached completion stage.
What if I want a break from learning?	That's fine, we give 12 months to complete the course, so if you want some time off then that's ok, as long as you complete within that time. Just keep in touch so that we know.
How do I contact you?	Email us info@a2atraining.co.uk we are quick to respond and happy to help.
Are the courses nationally recognised?	Yes, all our courses are certified by Highfield, they are nationally recognised qualifications and Ofqual recognised. We are a Highfield Qualifications approved centre.

Approved Centre